Defendant.)

The Court has received the Revised Presentence Investigation Report and Addendum ("PSR"), and the Defendant's objections (Filing No. 313). The government has not objected to the PSR.¹ See Amended Order on Sentencing Schedule, ¶ 6. The Court advises the parties that these Tentative Findings are issued with the understanding that, pursuant to United States v. Booker, 543 U.S. 220 (2005), the sentencing guidelines are advisory.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The Defendant's Objection to the Presentence Investigation Report (Filing No. 313) will be heard at the sentencing hearing;
2. The Court intends to adopt the PSR in all other respects;
3. If any party wishes to challenge these tentative findings, the party shall immediately file in the court file and serve upon opposing counsel and the Court a motion ¹Tentative Findings were originally issued in this matter on May 28, 2013. On June 5, 2013, the government filed an Unopposed Motion to Continue Sentencing and to Enlarge Time to File Objections (Filing No. 339). The motion was granted and an Amended Order on Sentencing Schedule was issued. No objections were filed by the government on ECF, nor were any objections raised by the government in the Addendum to the PSR.

challenging these tentative findings, supported by (a) such evidentiary materials as are required (giving due regard to the requirements of the local rules of practice respecting the submission of evidentiary materials), (b) a brief as to the law, and (c) if an evidentiary hearing is requested, a statement describing why an evidentiary hearing is necessary and an estimated length of time for the hearing;

4. Absent submission of the information required by paragraph 3 of this Order, these amended tentative findings are final; and

5. Unless otherwise ordered, any motion challenging these tentative findings shall be resolved at sentencing.

DATED this 15th day of July, 2013.
